Our Katrina experience was:

We live north side of the railroad tracks - not a flood zone. We received 5½ ft. of water in our new home. We loved everything we had - but lost it all. Repairs are going to be around 90k and that's not any contents. Like so many others - we do not have any insurance coverage. The homeowners insurance company won't even look at us because they said the damage ->

Write something special that you would like Santa to bring you or your family:

Thank you for your kindness,
